We very much hope you have enjoyed your time in Far North Queensland.

DAYS 2-7 CAIRNS: What would you like to do?

Your Far North Queensland days: One day we will be spent exploring the Atherton Tablelands with its many delights including the charm of Lake Barrine, the humility of the war memorial at Yungaburra and the awe of the Cathedral Fig Tree. Rolling hills, great views - this day has so much to recommend it.

Another day we will take the coastal road to Port Douglas, Stopping along the way for lunch and photo stops. Your time in Port Douglas is your own, maybe relax on the beach, browse Macrossan Street or go to the Wildlife Sanctuary. For all of us though our day will conclude with a sunset cruise!! This is the stuff that wonderful memories are made of

For the other days here your time can be used as you desire - we are on hand to outline ideas, assist with bookings, maybe even drive you places etc etc. There is so much to do here, including just relaxing that the time will just fly by. Stroll up the street, let us drive you to the wonderful Botanic Gardens in all their exotic colour and foliage; arrange a cruise to the Great Barrier Reef?; what about the Kuranda Scenic Rail; the Skyrail, renowned Cairns Botanic Gardens. Of course there is the area of Mareeba with Coffee Works and the fabulous Mareeba Heritage Museum. The list goes on.

Dinner each night (except our casual first night dinner and then the final night, when we have included a fabulous farewell dinner) is by your own arrangement but again we are on hand to assist with any and all arrangements if you wish.
